

The Englewood Public Library Presents
The All Seasons Chamber Players
“A Musical Offering”

The All Seasons Chamber Players return for their greatly anticipated annual concert. Now in its 37th year, the ensemble performs music from the baroque to contemporary periods in mixed ensembles. This year’s program will offer works for harpsichord, flute, violin and cello.

Saturday January 27,
7 p.m.

This program is free and open to the public. No registration is required.
