

Flutist Hansen in Concert

LISA HANSEN

The Serenata Ensemble of flutist Lisa Hansen, a former Wilton resident, and harpist Wendy Lucas of New Canaan, will be featured in a Classical Concert for Spring on Friday, April 22, at 8 p.m. at the Westport Arts Center on Morningside Drive.

The program will include music by Camille Saint-Saens, C.P.E. Bach, Claude Debussy and Joaquin Rodrigo. The program will also feature the world premiere of Nocturne, written by Frederick Blanche expressly for the Serenata Ensemble.

The two performers met as students at the Juilliard School of Music and have performed at New York's major concert halls and toured throughout the country. They have also performed on numerous classical radio stations and are active recording artists. The duo will also be performing at the New Canaan Library's Love the Library day celebration on Saturday, April 16.

Tickets for the Westport performance are $10 and $8 for Art Center members, seniors and students. For more information, call 966-7616.
